J., as guests of the Illinois Bell Telephone Co. The tour is scheduled for next Monday, Jan. 23. Paul will be accompanied by his teacher, George R. Abraham, (right) head of the science department at Lincoln-Way. The woman in the picture is Miss Jane Voltz, manager of the Illinois Bell system for New

Lenox, Frankfort and Mokena. Her headquarters are at Lockport. Paul was thrilled with the opportunity to watch the operation of a great research center. He hopes to continue his studies at Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Purdue University or the California Institute of Technology, and then go into research work. No Limits On Salaries For Magistrates Villages thruout the area that are served with a police magistrate have a problem to settle before the April elections.

Police magistrate are among the village and city officers to be elected this spring. The magistrates have been paid either by salary or fees. Beginning this year, however, the state law requires that magistrates be put on a salary basis and that all the fees collected by them shall be turned over to the municipal treasurer.

There has been considerable talk about the area that the law concerning pay for police magistrates placed a minimum and maximum salary as set forth in the act covering salaries for justices of the peace. This is not the case, however, it is pointed out by several village attorneys. Under the law a village or city council can fix the magistrate's salary at any figure.

So far there has been talk about the question but no action taken as far as local communities are concerned.

New Lenox, Frankfort, Mokena, and Orland Park are all served by police magistrates.

Born August 2, 1909 in Green Garden township he was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Fred Harnack Sr., but has been a resident of Frankfort for the past 40 years; moving to the village with his parents when he was eleven years old.

He lived in Frankfort all his life and was active in community affairs being a charter member of the Frankfort fire department; board member of the Pleasant Hills cemetery association; member of the planning commission and Modern Woodman Camp 314 and also a past officer of the church board of St. Peter's United Church of Christ.

He was employed as a purchasing agent for Cooper Show Ford garage for many years.

Frankfort Will Build Addition To Grade School

Four classrooms are tentatively planned as an addition to the present Frankfort grade school after state and county officials agreed that a new school was not necessary at this time.

On Monday, Jan. 23, architects will be asked to come to an adjourned school board meeting. The meeting will begin at 7:30 p.m.

The decision to add on to the existing building was based on the results of the school board's recent survey of the district and a tour of the school by Verne Cracker, county superintendent. He was accompanied by Earl Hudson, state school building consultant, and Owen Hileman, state curriculum consultant.

The survey conducted by the board indicated that the school enrollment would remain stable until 1966. When the population in the Connecticut Hills subdivision warrants it, a new school will be built in that area.

At the Jan. 10th meeting, the primary recommendations made by Cracker, Hileman and Hudson were to enrich the program of the seventh and eighth grades. Hileman said that a junior high school program is most desirable but it is not feasible in a district the size of Frankfort.

As an alternative, the program of the two upper grades can be expanded and provide a transition from the elementary to the high school program. He said an attempt should be made at this level to discover individual abilities and interests of students and to guide them, thereby resulting in a lower drop-out rate at the high school level.

Hileman specifically suggested further development of the science program and an arts and crafts program. It was also suggested that a kindergarten program, planned in relation to the elementary program, be considered.

Vernon Hanson, school board member suggested that the new classrooms be larger and more flexible so that if it becomes necessary, they could be adapted to another purpose.

The board also took action to install a dry line system in the attic of the school to prevent a recurrence of freezing pipes.

A stymie was met in the board's efforts to establish a class for the educable mentally handicapped children. In order to qualify for state aid, the school district making application must have a classroom available in its school building.

The Frankfort school cannot meet this requirement.

Unless another nearby community can provide this and will follow thru on establishment of the class, the board's hopes for these children cannot be realized.

It was reported that the teachers would like to observe the success of other district now involved, before subscribing to the Educational Airborn TV program.

Bids On New N. Lenox PO Close Feb. 27

Bids on the new postoffice for New Lenox will be accepted up to 3 p.m., Feb. 27, according to an announcement from the postoffice department.

Prospective bidders may obtain more information from Roger T. Stevens, real estate officer of the postoffice department, whose address is Rm. 1153 Main Postoffice Bldg., 433 W. Van Buren, Chicago, 100, Ill. His telephone number is Wabash 2-9200, Ext. 724.

Under the system the government has been using someone erects a building according to government specifications and design, and then leases it to the postoffice department. The lowest bid is therefore the lowest rental.

The New Lenox office is to be located on the east side of S. Cedar rd., 266 feet south of U.S. 30. The site has a frontage of 64 feet and it is 143 feet long.

The front entrance will be at the south end, leading into the box lobby. The service lobby will be in the center and office facilities for Postmaster Lester Brown will be at the north end of the forepart of the building. A paved driveway will lead to the rear maneuvering area. The drive will be along the north side of the building. Mail will be delivered and loaded out at the rear of the postoffice.

The paved area, including sidewalks, will cover 6,842 sq. feet. The interior of the postoffice will be 2,604 square feet in area, a large portion of which will be work space.

The building itself is to be 44 feet wide and 67 feet long, according to the plans.

New Lenox has outgrown its present postoffice and the new building is needed. Since home delivery service was begun at New Lenox more work space has been needed for sorting mail.

Area Candidates Fail In GOP Caucus, Democrats Pick Two

Joliet walked off with the peace in the Republican caucus of the second district on Monday. Three were to be nominated and all three are from Joliet.

The Democrats, on the other hand, chose two Joliet attorneys and a lawyer from Mokena-Frankfort, as nominees for justice of the peace and picked a man from Troy, one from Joliet, and one from New Lenox to run for constable.

The second district is made up of Troy, Joliet, New Lenox, and Frankfort townships and the county board decreed that three of the seven justices of the peace to be elected in Will county shall come from this district. There is a constable elected for each JP.

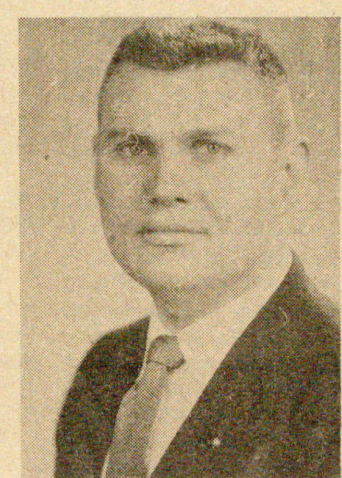

The Democrat caucus was held by the committeemen of the district. The Republican caucus was in the form of a primary in which the Republican voters of the district went to the polls to express a choice. Since the party had to pay for the election only eight polling places were used -- one at Mokena, one at Frankfort, one at New Lenox, one at Troy and four in Joliet.

George E. Sangmeister, son of Mayor and Mrs. George Sangmeister of Frankfort himself a resident of Mokena, was nominated by the Democrats for justice of the peace, and John Brent, of New Lenox, is the party's nominee for constable in the area.

The other Democrat nominees are: For JP -- Robert Buchar and William Bossingham; for constable Chester Biele, Joliet, and William Wessell, of Troy.

The Republican nominees are: For JP -- Anthony Mackay, George Williams, both incumbents, and Walter (Bus) McKay, a member of the Joliet park board and former chief deputy, Roy Doerfler was sheriff. McKay is now serving as a deputy under Sheriff Gilbert Knater.

There were three candidates for JP from this area, Grant B. (Jim) Geuther and Herbert Folkers, of Frankfort, and Anthony Dina, barber and Mokena CD director.

G. E. SANGMEISTER

James Sherwood, now serving as a justice of the peace in New Lenox township did not participate in the Republican caucus nor did he file as an independent as he was considering.

Geuther ran fourth, polling a total of 1,029 votes, McKay who finished third, had 1,540, Anthony Mackay, who has served as a JP for several terms, led the ticket with 2,375 votes. Williams, also a veteran JP, had 1,821 votes.

Geuther polled 240 votes in Frankfort and 111 in Mokena and 123 in New Lenox for a total of 474. He received 555 votes in Joliet township. Folkers had 187 votes in Frankfort and 66 in Mokena. Dina had 106 votes in Mokena. His total for the district was 226.

Comparatively little interest was shown in the caucus in any part of the district. Political observers are wondering what will be the reaction to the fact that this area, always heavily Republican, has no representation on that ticket.

See Early Completion Of N. Lenox School Addition

Contracts for the completion of the Oakview school addition at New Lenox were let last week to the Chicago Heights Construction company.

Work on the addition was halted in October when Nord Co. the Chicago firm which originally had the contract allegedly defaulted in the agreement.

A year ago the contract for $211,000 was let to the Chicago firm with the agreement that a bonus would be paid if work was finished by Sept. 6. A penalty of $100 per work day would be imposed if the addition was not completed by Sept. 15.

Since the work came to a standstill in October, the $100 a work day penalty has been accumulating to the point where the New Lenox school board will be credited with approximately $12,000. From this amount, a portion will be taken to pay attorney's fees which will be incurred thru legal action on the defaulting of the contract.

The Chicago Heights Construction company gave a 10 week completion date, but hopes to have the addition done in five weeks. The letting of the new contract will cost the New Lenox school board nothing. The loss, which amounts to about $45,000 will be the responsibility of the bonding company which insured the Chicago firm.

The addition to Oakview school includes five classrooms, a gymnasium, an auditorium and additional space for four more classrooms. A large stage will be constructed across one end of the building but will serve a dual-purpose in that it will be a permanent band room. Construction will allow physical education classes to be conducted at the same time that band practice is going on without the two interfering with each other.

The report on the school building program was made to the Tuesday luncheon meeting of the New Lenox Association of Commerce by John Oster, superintendent of the public grade schools.

Burglars Get 2 Safes, Cash

Two safes, $500 in cash, two lamps and two typewriters were reported stolen from the real estate offices of the Arbury Hills subdivision at U. S. 45 and 193rd street, east of Mokena early Saturday morning, Jan. 14.

According to a report at the sheriff's office one of the safes was recovered later in the day near Berwyn.

Sewer System At New Lenox Now In Use

The New Lenox sanitary sewer system, built at a cost of approximately $500,000, is now in operation. The sewage treatment was put into operation Monday, Jan. 16, so all connections can now be completed.

More than 200 property owners have obtained permits to make connection with the mains and the number is increasing daily, according to Village Clerk Robert J. McCleary.

In laying the mains the contract included carrying stubs to approximately the property lines. The installation of the necessary pipes between the stubs and the houses or business establishments is borne by the property owners. Loans are available, where needed, for this purpose.

Building a sewer system in New Lenox has been a project that has been long in the making. It was put aside several times because of the expense but last year it was finally decided to go ahead and revenue and general obligation bonds were sold to finance the improvement.

The rates charged for handling and treatment of sewage will be used to retire the revenue bonds. The general obligation bonds are paid off thru taxes.

Village officials say the revenue will be sufficient not only to pay off the bonds but also to build up a reserve for future expansion of the system.

Work on the project began last June and the installation of mains completed in the late fall. Delivery on some of the equipment for the treatment plant was delayed, however, so it was not finished until last week-end.

The grading of the treatment plant site and the seeding there cannot be completed until spring but that has nothing to do with the practical part of the operation.

First bills for the use of the sewers will be sent out in about two months, it was said.

Hold Jolietan On Charges Of N. Lenox Girls

A Joliet man was locked up in the Will county jail Thursday night after being identified as the man who tried to coax two New Lenox girls into his car.

Wayne M. Gregory, 23, of 1113 Alann Drive, is charged with disorderly conduct.

The report states that Gregory tried to get the two 14 year old girls into his car at the intersection of Hickory and Pine streets in New Lenox. They refused twice and reported the incident to their parents. Gregory will appear Jan. 24 before Justice of the Peace R. R. Konopack.

PLANS BREAKFAST

"Come as you like" breakfast will be served by the Naomi circle of the New Lenox Methodist church, Wednesday, Jan. 25 at 9:00 a.m. Recipes of the bakery goods served will be on sale. Those desiring rides are asked to contact Mrs. Rowena Wolfinger, HU 5-8485. A free will offering will be taken.

Lincoln-Way To Sell $145,000 Of Tax Warrants

The board of education of Lincoln-Way high school will meet with representatives of three state banks in the area to discuss the issuance of $145,000 in tax anticipation warrants. Supt. A. Hunter Chapman is to arrange such a meeting for the near future.

This was decided at a regular school board meeting held Thursday night. These warrants will take care of the school's needs until June 1, 1961, with $100,000 for the educational fund and $45,000 for the building fund.

A portion of the meeting was devoted to the re-evaluation of the practical arts program as it is presently being conducted at the high school. Seven teachers involved in the program were present and each one outlined his or hers responsibility ties in the field. Seven years ago when Lincoln-Way was built the program was designed to acquaint incoming freshmen with the various arts. It is mandatory that they take the course. With the growth of the school, the classes become overcrowded with a limited amount of time devoted to each area.

Areas studied include typing, music appreciation, vocational agriculture, reading and vocabulary building, home economics, arts and crafts and industrial arts. The teachers were asked by the board to come up with suggestions for revisions of the program to be presented to another meeting. It was agreed that the program was too valuable to drop but that it needed some drastic re-vamping to meet the growth of the school.

A final payment of $1,000 is due the general contractor on the recent addition to the high school. The board decided to hold up payment of the $1,000 until an explanation can be given by a member of the company for an additional bill of $1,600, charged for additional supervision of the project.

The members approved the appointment of Howard Osmus, business manager of the Hedges Clinic in Frankfort, to serve on the Citizens Central Consulting committee. A vacancy on the committee was created when Dr. Claude Otto resigned. Loren Schleeter of Manhattan reported on the Illinois School Board association divisional meeting held at Kankakee. He said the spring meeting, slated for April 12, will be held at Taft school in Lockport. State tax laws, the new treasurer's law and insurance for school boards were among the topics discussed, Schleeter said.

The resignation of Mrs. Jane Sullivan, an English teacher at Lincoln-Way for six and one-half years, was accepted by the board. In her letter of resignation, Mrs. Sullivan said she was leaving the area because her husband was being transferred.

Schleeter was appointed a delegate to the Citizens' Central Consulting committee with board president Albert Krusemark to serve as an alternate. J. Hunter Chapman, principal, reported on the financial outcome of the Lincoln-Way Holiday Invitational basketball tournament. Lincoln-Way realized a profit of $244.43 plus $123.30 for participating in the games. Net profit was $1,066.53

Let's Keep The Schools Independent

We have never opposed any measures which we believe would have improved the lot of the schools, the pupils and the teachers.

There are limits, however, and we are against giving the Illinois Education Association or the National Education Association or any other group associated with the schools a blank check with which to carry out some of their ideas.

As a recent convention the IEA went on record as favoring enactment of an income tax law for Illinois, more money for state aid for the schools and a plan under which the state would build schools for the various districts.

We are not for a state income tax for the benefit of the schools or any other purposes. It would be just an additional tax, not a replacement, and there are enough taxes now.

It may be possible to provide for a more equitable distribution of state aid for the schools but we don't believe pouring more money in the fund would be a solution if there is still to be a battle over how it should be divided.

As for building schools we believe the state has an excellent plan in effect now. When a district has gone broke and is without sufficient bonding power to finance a building program the state advances the money to build the school. Then the district repays the state, like rent, over a 16 and two-thirds year period. The state gets back its money and the school district makes a substantial savings because it pays no interest.

This leaves the school district independent and free to operate without interference by some bureau or committee at Springfield. We don't see how the present plan can be improved. Certainly not by any giveaway scheme. When a government embarks on a giveaway program it becomes boss of the project.

We are opposed to big government and the forces that make for big government. And one of the most potent is control of the purse strings.

We don't like the idea of a state school board any better than the idea of a national school board. We believe each school district should be operated by the board elected at district level. We believe each board should have the right to choose its own teachers and other employees and to say how much it will pay them: we believe each board should have the right to establish curriculums and to choose the text books that cover them.

In brief we believe the schools should be run at local level. Advocates of big government are backing legislation in congress, along with some educational groups, which would put the federal government in the school building business. It would also suit their purposes if the federal government contributed to teachers' salaries. We think it would be a calamity give Washington bureaucrats an opportunity to operate our schools.

A piece came in the other day from the Red Cross offering instructions "of what to do until the doctor comes."

This department has no idea of the resources of the Red Cross except that they are large. They would have to be if Red Cross is going to give such a course. In fact the Red Cross would have to have all the facilities of a great university if it decided to go all out in offering courses on what to do until the doctor arrives.

Your correspondent does not pretend to speak for all people or all doctors. Some columnists do, of course, but Second Thot admits its limitations.

The best this department can do is speak for maybe a dozen friends and acquaintances and if their experiences count for anything the Red Cross is embarking on a big program indeed.

What to do until the doctor comes opens up a vast field. Finally resolved, however, it is probably an individual problem. It would depend largely, of course, on ones likes, dislikes, skills and talents.

One gifted in putting words together, for instance might fill in the time waiting for the doctor by writing a book. Or if one felt that he or she needed some schooling along this line they could enroll in a course in creative writing and so put in their time waiting for the doctor by studying or getting in a few licks at their home work.

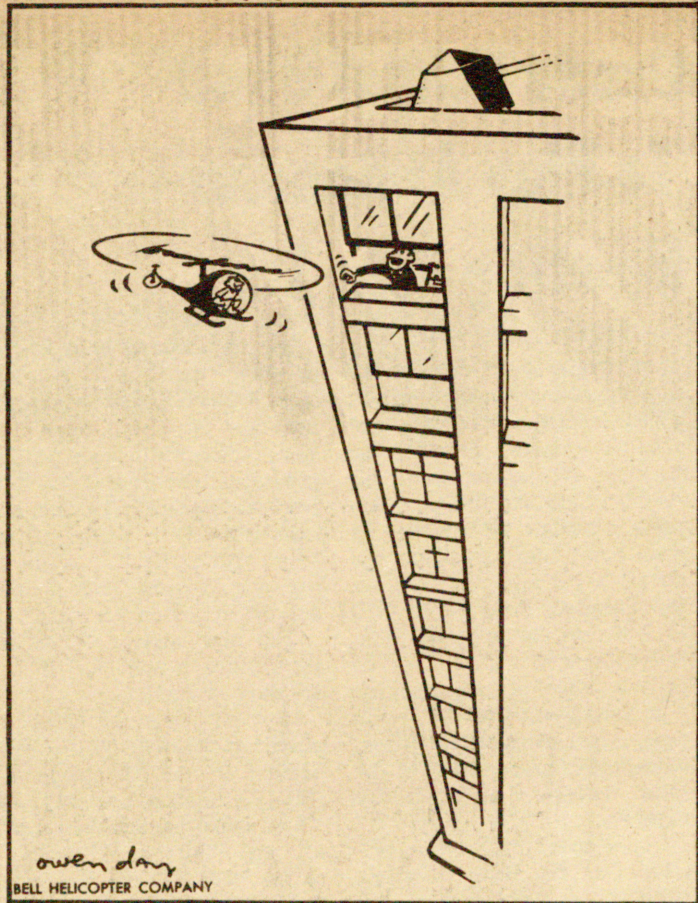

As a matter of fact one could do the same thing with practically any subject that could be given by mail. And there are few subjects today that aren't offered by mail, even blacksmithing, altho one must be prepared to pay a pretty penny for postage if the necessary equipment includes a full-size anvil.

It is also possible to put in the time until the doctor comes by taking a full course in law and the interval is ideal for one who wishes to take graduate work. It is quite possible not only to get a master's degree in this way but as well as qualify for a doctorate.

If you have a hobby, of course, you will find that the time passes swiftly. If you don't have a hobby there will be ample time to pick one up.

Until the doctor comes one can take up various things, painting, wood working, stamp and coin collecting, clay modeling, metal working, cooking — even housecleaning.

COPTER CARTOON by owen day

"Main street's two blocks down that way!"

Or one can catch up with his correspondence, figure out his income tax, carry on a chess game by mail, or practice chip shots in the back yard. A friend of ours developed considerable skill with his seven and nine irons while waiting for the doctor to come. He cut a hole in the seat of an old wooden chair and sawed off the legs until it was only about four inches off the ground. Then he would drop a dozen golf balls 20 to 30 feet away and begin chipping. It was surprising the number of balls that he was able to drop thru the hole in the chair. It was also quite profitable to him during the golfing season. Put him near a green and he could chip one in all too frequently. And if they didn't drop they were so close that his putts were only inches.

It worked out very well, my friend said, because by the time the doctor did come he (the chipping) had forgotten just what it was that had been troubling him and the doctor didn't mind because he enjoyed getting in a little chipping practice too.

Chipping bones, he would say, was work but chipping golf balls was fun.

One can do many things until the doctor comes — get in one's military service, watch the children grow up, keep the grass cut and the walks free of snow, watch the garden grow, play solitaire, enter a bridge tournament, take a vacation.

For the person in a hurry it is simple. Don't wait until the doctor comes to you — go to the doctor. Even if his office is in Boston or Rochester it will be quicker if you go than if he comes.

Just hope we never get socialized medicine. If the doctors begin working for the government heaven help us.

Before getting an appointment we probably would have to fill out a dozen different forms in triplicate and then await congressional action.

In the meantime, until the doctor comes, anyone for tennis?

Hints For Homeowners

By: James Fizzell, Ass't. Farm Adviser

Local florists in the neighborhood inform me that for the past several years Cyclamen have been gaining in popularity as Christmas and Valentine gift plants.

Cyclamen were once one of the most popular pot plants for the winter season. Increasing costs of production eventually made it unprofitable for florists to grow. Cyclamen and the plants disappeared from the floral shops. Newly developed ways of growing these delightful plants have once again put them in the market.

Properly handled, cyclamen are one of the longest lasting flowering pot plants. A well budded plant often continues to bloom two or three months after purchasing.

For an extended color display, give it good light (although some protection from direct sun), but cool conditions—50 degrees F. at night 60 degrees to 65 degrees F. during the day — and plenty of humidity. An ideal place is an unshaded north or east window, close to the glass. To help maintain humidity, fill a large plate or bowl, shallow pan with water. Set the cyclamen on an inverted dish, just up out of the water. The evaporating water will do a great deal towards maintaining humid air around the foliage and flowers. Check soil moisture regularly. This plant requires plenty of water and good drainage. Keep water out of the foliage crowns. Bud blasting and leaf yellowing result from a hot, dry atmosphere, lack of water, or insufficient light.

Although the cyclamen is difficult to rebloom, you will be highly rewarded if you are successful. If you decide to carry it over for another season, give it a rest period by tapering off on water after the flowers are gone. Store cool with very little watering, if any, until warm spring weather arrives. Then replant the bulb-like structure in a well-prepared potting soil with plenty of fibrous organic matter. Allow half of the "bulb" to show above the soil. Grow in a cool, protected spot outside. Select a bright location that provides partial shade during the middle of the day. Give adequate water, syring the foliage in the mornings, and feed periodically with a liquid fertilizer. Take the plant indoors before cold weather in the fall. Give full sun and the temperatures mentioned previously. Flowering should occur in midwinter. With luck, the same plant can be rebloomed over a period of years.

Much of the above information on cyclamen as well as similar information on other plants can be found in the bulletin "Flowering Gift Plants" available at the Farm Adviser's office, Farm Bureau building, South St., & 66th court, Tinley Park.

Business & Finance

BY MAURICE P. ANGLAND

Analysts of stock market action last week, noted the broad interest. Total volume of trading was sharply upward, but the Dow Jones index of price increases was comparatively small. This fact and observations of the broad nature of the trading, indicated investment buying as against speculative interest.

It is rather well known that for several months there has been an increasing amount of investment funds which had adopted a wait-and-see attitude. Added to this back log of accumulated investment funds, was the year end interest and dividend payments which amounts to a sizeable sum.

Institutional investors have considerable pressure to keep their funds working rather than comparatively idle and non-productive.

In addition, there is a considerable body of investment analysts who have expressed the opinion that the recession is to be one of the shortest and mildest on record with its end seen early in 1961.

One of the lead articles of U. S. News & World Report of Jan. 16, 1961, carries an article on the likelihood of major depressions. As to the likelihood of major depressions under our present economy, the report states that altho no one can be sure, more and more economists believe that in years ahead, big depressions are highly unlikely.

Two major reasons are given for this view.

First, the nations business leaders have much more knowledge of how to prevent violent changes in the business cycle.

Second, a whole series of safeguards have been built into the economy. When business slumps, these forces come into action.

Governmental spending is stepped up, the unemployed draw jobless pay; Social Security pensions provide a steady income for millions of the elderly; and bank credit controls and insurance of deposits, makes bank failures most unlikely.

The article points to home mortgages and fact they are now stretched out to 20 and 30 years against maturities of from three to five years prior to government backing of these mortgages. In periods of unemployment, inability to meet mortgage interest and principal, caused foreclosures which had a cumulative downward effect on the economy and increased the economic impact of a slowing down of business activity. Today, mortgage payments are more nearly about what would be expected as rent payments.

Wages now stay high even when business declines. Labor unions tend to secure long term wage contracts. The minimum wage laws prevent lowering of wages of lowest bracket workers. The article states that about 80 per cent of wage and salary workers are now eligible for unemployment payments. A generation ago, loss of a job stopped income completely and debts piled up with greatly lessened public spending in all lines. This had an effect on many lines of activity and more layoffs. This the downward pressure on the economy fed on itself.

The government is committed, by law, to use all of its vast powers to keep employment high. The federal government pays out about $100 billion a year in cash. State and local governments add another $50 billion yearly. All government spending is today about 20 per cent of total spending against a figure of eight per cent in 1929.

Arrest Mokenan On Charges Of Frankfort Girl

Elmer Raske, 33, of 11508 W. 193rd st., Mokena, a milkman, is facing a charge of contributing to the delinquency of a minor pending further investigation of alleged molestation of a 16-year-old Frankfort girl. The incident is said to have taken place in the kitchen at the girl's home last Friday forenoon when Raske stopped to deliver some milk. The girl's father was sleeping at the time in a bedroom at the front of the house.

Raske continued on his route and was arrested at Frankfort by the chief of police there, Frank Simon, who turned him over to Chief Deputy Sheriff Lee Ruphard and Deputy John Shelly. The sheriff's office had been called into and has sent out general alert.

The arresting officers said Raske admitted molesting the girl.

Washington News Letter

CONG. N. M. MASON

This letter starts the 24th year of our weekly reports to our people. In these reports we express our attitudes and convictions upon legislative problems that are to come before the congress. We do not expect our readers always to agree with us, but we believe our people are entitled to know where we stand upon legislative matters — hence these weekly letters.

Your congressman's office in Washington, D. C. — not in Oglesby, Illinois. Communications sent to Oglesby have to be forwarded to the Washington office for attention. This means a delay of at least one week before an answer can be received. All communications, therefore, should be addressed to: Congressman N. M. Mason Room 1103, New House Office Building, Washington 25, D. C.

When a congressman is elected he becomes the representative of all the people of his district — regardless of party affiliation. For that reason, if he is sincere and conscientious, he wants to know what his people think about national problems. Invites — yes, urges you — to express your thoughts and wishes in connection with national problems, and he promises in return to be equally frank in expressing his ideas and convictions upon the same problems.

Legislative projects for 1961: The understanding in Washington is that President John F. Kennedy will submit a legislative program in conformity with the platform adopted at the Democrat national convention; namely, a program so radical that even Franklin D. Roosevelt would have hesitated to recommend it. When his radical proposals are turned down by a coalition of southern Democrats and the Republican minority in congress the President will not be too disappointed. He will then be able to say, "Well I recommended a program to carry out the platform adopted by our party at Los Angeles, but the congress that was elected with me turned the program down."

The following is an educated guess as to what will be proposed. To counter the expected recession, five measures that failed in the 1960 session will be urged:

1. Federal grants for school construction.
2. Medical care for the aged.
3. Federal aid for depressed areas.
4. An increased minimum wage bill.
5. A lower interest rate of FHA loans.

What will happen to the above five proposals is anybody's guess.

No Tax-Reduction legislation yet:

After six weeks of extensive hearings in 1960 on practically every section of the Internal revenue code — listening to some 200 tax authorities from all over the nation; and after compiling three volumes of testimony, the house committee of ways and means turned the material over to its staff experts and the treasury experts for them to analyze, digest, summarize, and report back to the committee for action in 1961.

The report has not been forthcoming. Action by the committee on any tax revision has been held up until the new President determines how much federal spending will be necessary. It begins to look as tho tax increases and new tax sources will be needed to meet the prospective increased federal spending. The contemplated tax reductions of one year ago are now "out th window."

WILLIAM F. WHITESIDE COOK COUNTY ASSOC. FARM ADVISER

TINLEY PARK-KELlogg 2-4374

The 4-H Federation studied the proper use and keeping of 4-H record books. We were happy to have the services of Ronald Kollman, Harvey, in conducting this session on records. Ron is a former 4-H member and a recent graduate of the University of Illinois College of Agriculture. While in 4-H Club work, Ron was very active in his local club as well as county 4-H activities. He attended National 4-H Club Congress and was one of the six national winners in the 4-H Dairy awards program.

Also helping at the meeting was Mrs. Carl Johnson, Richton Park. She explained how to keep Home Economics project records, and the use of the Standard Report form.

Earl Stems, Tinley Park, chairman of the Soil Conservation District, reports that the district will hold its annual meeting Feb. 10, at 8 p.m., at the Farm Bureau building in Tinley Park. The speaker at this meeting will be Balber Dhillon from India, Dhillon is in the United States studying agriculture.

One of the important matters of business to come before this meeting, will be the proposed merger of the South Cook Soil Conservation District with the Soil Conservation District in Will County. This merger would offer to farmers in South Cook all the opportunities for technical assistance with soil and water problems that is now available to them, hence the farmer stands to lose nothing.

The merged district, if approved, will be called the "Will-South Cook Soil and Water Conservation District". The main reason for the merger will be to provide for more efficiency in offering technical service to farmers, as well as relieving the South Cook District of some of its administrative responsibilities. From where I sit, this merger looks like a good idea.

The Upper Room

Read Ephesians 1:15-23

The church of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth, (1 Timothy 3:15).

Thirty-five years ago, Nazel El Nassara, meaning "Village of the Nazarenes," was poor, backward, and miserable. This village in Egypt had no schools, no social center, no means of help. It was utterly neglected by all.

A true shining light — a small church, with a young devoted pastor-brought hope to that village and neighborhood. Vital preaching, praying, Bible reading, and a teaching ministry awakened the community to meet its needs through the power of the living Christ.

The village, now having 2,400 persons living in it, has become a dynamic center of useful service. It has given to Egypt more than one hundred pastors, doctors, chemists, teachers, and engineers, plus scores of efficient businessmen and leading officials.

Lately, it started a Laubach literacy campaign, which swept over the place and neighborhood with a Bible team as follow-up.

What a blessing is the church in a needy world! PRAYER: We thank Thee, O God, for all that thy church has meant to us and to our community. We pray Thee to fill it with power needed to change and save communities of people from sin and sorrow, pain and ignorance. In Jesus' name, Amen.

Arbury Hills Committee Busy Drafting By Laws For Civic Group

The by-laws and charter committee of the Arbury Hills Civic Association met at the home of their chairman, Glenn Cullum, 9525 W. Elm Ave., on Jan. 3rd, at the home of William O'Neill, 19327 S. Oak on the 10th and at the Alan Borcherth's, 9436 W. Elm on the 17th. The committee hopes to have a set of proposed by-laws prepared and in the hands of the public before the next meeting scheduled for Feb. 7. The Nominating Committee headed by Mrs. John Hayden has been interviewing people so they may select a slate of officers for the election to be held February 7th.

Friday the 13th may be bad luck for some of us but it was a lucky day for Miss Patty Kronick who celebrated her tenth birthday on that day. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hyman Kronick, held a birthday dinner in her honor Friday night at their home on West Pine - guests included Patty's brother and sisters and Mrs. Harry Kronick, Mr. and Mrs. David Kronick and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Horvath all of Chicago.

The need for parents, board members and teachers to work together to develop a wholesome attitude and atmosphere for their school was stressed by Will County School Supt., Verne E. Crackel when he spoke at the Summit Hills Booster's club meeting held last Thursday night. Mr. Crackel told of the responsibilities and duties of the Board of Directors, teachers and parents and everyone who attended found their evening well spent. The meeting was called to order at 7:30 p.m. by Mrs. Marvin B. Rognlie, president; Mrs. Robert Dickerson gave a treasurer's report and the minutes from October and November were read by the secretary, Mrs. Ralph Broze, followed by committee reports. Mrs. Fred Hentsch reported on the December bake sale and, as ways and means chairman, suggested different money-making projects for future use - Mrs. William Doogan, Mrs. William Watkins and Mrs. Hyman Kornick were selected to assist the student council with a candy sale; Mrs. Thomas Tanis reported for the membership committee; Mrs. William Watkins reported on the Open House held in December and Mrs. Vernon Crowder reported on the school Christmas parties - Mr. Charles Relis, principal, extended thanks from the Student Council for the Christmas parties. A constitution and by-laws committee was appointed; Mrs. Clarence Lauffer, chairman, Mrs. John Hayden, Mrs. William Watkins and Mrs. Paul Smith. Discussion was held about what we could purchase for the school and it was voted to spend $100 for folding chairs and miscellaneous small items to be chosen by Mr. Relis, Mrs. Rognlie announced that there will be school valentine parties planned by the teachers and room mothers and then introduced Mrs. John Hayden, program chairman for the evening; she, in turn, introduced Mr. Crackel. Two members of the board of directors, J. G. Bettenhausen and R. R. Doner were at the meeting. Refreshments were served by Mrs. John Smith Mrs. Vernon Crowder and Mrs. William Watkins.

We have three new families to meet this week - residing at 9525 West Elm Avenue are Donis and Glenn Cullum who came out from Chicago. Mr. Cullum is a signal circuit engineer for the Rock Island Lines; Donis was also employed by Rock Island until recently but is now at home. At 9525 West Willow Lane we find Clyde and Grace Shields with Cindy Lynn, 3, David Alan, 2, and Laura Ann who was a year old in October. They came out from Chicago a year ago and

Hold Funeral Of Toboggan Crash Victim

Funeral services were conducted last Thursday afternoon in the Schmaedeke funeral home for William H. Carter, 24, a toboggan crash victim. Burial was in Holy Sepulchre cemetery at 11th and Ridgely. Military services were conducted at the graveside.

Carter and his wife, Rosemary, residents of Bellwood, Ill., were visiting her parents and family, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund L. Mangan, 17345 Lockwood, Tinley Park on Sunday, Jan. 8, and from there went to Palos for tobogganning.

At the time of the accident the victim and his sister-in-law Margaret Mangan were coming down a hillside in the forest preserves when the toboggan hit a tree. The impact knocked them unconscious. A Forest Ranger was summoned and Mr. Carter was removed by ambulance to Little Company of Mary hospital where he was pronounced dead on arrival. Miss Mangan later regain consciousness and was released.

He was employed as a produce manager for the Jewel Tea company at Berwyn. Carter served as a paratrooper from 1955 to 1958.

The young couple married at Tinley Park, Nov. 14, 1959 and had recently purchased a home in Bellwood. Mrs. Carter is an expectant mother.

An inquest was held at the Schmaedeke funeral home Tuesday, Jan. 10. Cerebral hemorrhage was found to be the cause of death.

Knights Whip 2 More League Foes

Wins Over Evergreen Park And Bremen Keep Slate Clean

BY BILL SLUIS
The Knights of Lincoln-Way made short work of Bremen and Evergreen Park this past weekend, and are halfway to the South-West Suburban championship. The first round of play is over, and the Knights are in unchallenged possession of first place.

On Friday night the Lincoln-Way cagers paid a call on the Bremen Braves, who were entrenched in a three-way tie for second spot in the SWS. The Knights took immediate charge and nailed a 49-30 loss on the Bremen ledger.

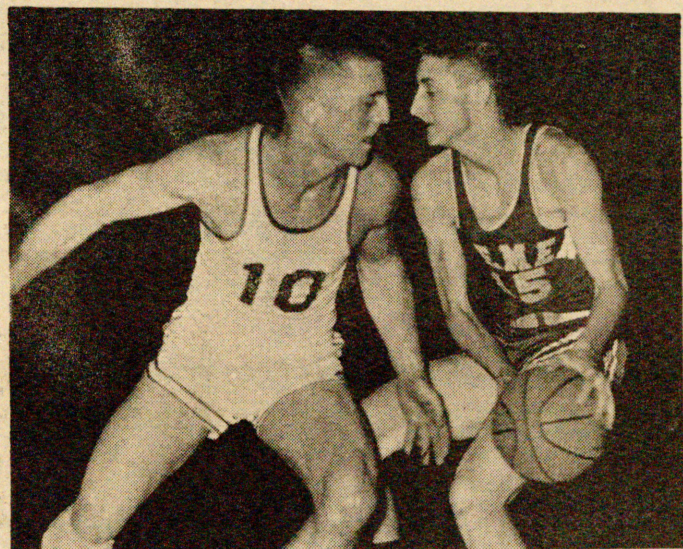

The Knights threw a press in the first half and built up a 25-17 pad at intermission. Bremen could not "crack" the L-W defense and the Braves repeatedly passed the ball into the crowd. Duane Warning of the Knights threw in 11 points during the first half.

The third and fourth quarter found Lincoln-Way abandoning the press for the most part, but Bremen did worse than ever. The Braves scored only three points during the entire third quarter. The Knights went on to wind 49-30.

For Lincoln-Way, Duane Warning was high scorer with 15. Skip Kruzich added 12 and Al Waldvogel 10. Bremen's Rich Norbut netted 12.

Saturday evening the Knights returned to the home hardcourt, where they administered a 65-29 drubbing to the Mustangs of Evergreen Park. Quick, snappy passing marked the Lincoln-Way offense, and the Mustangs folded almost immediately under the heavy fire of the Knights.

Lincoln-Way had run away with the game by half time, having built up a 35-12 margin. Although the Mustangs played a fair first quarter, their play in the second period was woeful compared with the hometown foe. In eight minutes of basketball

SEEING EYE TO EYE—at least for this fraction of a moment but really the two young men hold completely opposite views. No. 10 is Duane Erickson of Carl Sandburg's varsity basketball team. He would like to see all the buckets go one way — Sandburg's. On the other hand the Bremen player, Allan Lussow would like to see all the scoring done by the Braves. It turned out both teams fared pretty well but Sandburg was the winner, 53-49. The game was played last Saturday night.

Evergreen scored only two points, both free tosses.

The Knights had the game sewed up by the end of the third stanza, so coach Joe Kruzich emptied the bench and allowed the subs to finish out the game. Hostilities ended with L-W on top 65-29. High scorers were Duane Warning, Skip Kruzich, and Al Waldvogel, who scored 19, 20 and 10, respectively.

This weekend's game is with the Carl Sandburg Eagles, who upset Homewood Friday night to capture second position. The Eagles will invade the L-W gym tomorrow (Friday) night for an 8:00 o'clock encounter with the Knights. A reasonable guess would give Lincoln-Way a ten-point edge.

Frankfort Village Board OK's Industrial Zoning

A parcel of land, 15 acres in area, was re-zoned for industry Monday night when the Frankfort village board of trustees met at the village hall.

The area is located west of Frankfort within the village limits. It is owned by the firm of S and S Sink Tops, which plans to relocate its plant there. The request for re-zoning was made by Grant Geuther of the Lambrecht Agency.

Village Attorney Albert Krusemark recommended that the resolution be passed. The resolution is subject to a landscaped set-back of 30 feet and must be a type of construction adopted in a proposed building code. Geuther, in representing the Sager firm, said that in order for Sager to sell land to other light industry, interested in locating there, it must be re-zoned in an industry category. The board's decision was unanimous.

The trustees voted to table

a petition from A. T. McIntosh and company in Lincoln Meadows requesting that a parcel of land in Lincoln Meadows No. 2 be zoned from residential to business. The letter making the request was submitted to the board by the zoning board of appeals.

The area in question is 13 acres already set aside for business. The company was asking that the business be limited to a group listed in two paragraphs in a proposed revised building restriction code. Since this code has not been re-written or adopted by the trustees, the request had to be tabled until the next board meeting. The trustees will ask a clarification by the zoning board.

Building Inspector Clark Bennett reported to the trustees on the inspection of new homes going up in the Frankfort area. The board discussed the possibility of an ordinance governing the grade around a house since there presently is no restriction.

It was agreed that a recommended procedure for establishing a grade should be set up with provisions for unusual circumstances in the terrain.

Trustees voted to pay $1,746.71 to the D'Andrea Construction company. They also unanimously agreed to hold up the final payment of $2,000 to Gaskell and Walton until a pump at the new sewage plant is put into proper operating order.

A lengthy discussion of water and sewer rates, as pertaining to motels in the area, ensued. It was agreed that motel units, their water consumption and sewer use would be computed on the basis of each motel unit representing a half a dwelling. That is 14 motel units would be computed the same as 7 single family dwellings.

Dwellings which house one or more apartments will be computed on a minimum sewer charge for each apartment in addition to the meter reading for water consumption. The meter reader will survey the apartments and report to Town Clerk Walter Pfaff the number in existence.

It was agreed to purchase a domestic size dehumidifier for the sewage plant. Mayor George Sangmeister was absent from the meeting. Trustee Lynn Kolshagen served as acting mayor.

Area Banks Hold Annual Stockholders Meetings

Steps to finance the proposed addition to the New Lenox State bank were taken at the annual stockholders meeting at that institution last Thursday, Jan. 12.

The addition--plans for which are to be forthcoming soon--is expected to cost about $75,000. Arrangements to finance this were taken in conjunction with the stockholder and director meetings.

Three increases of $25,000 each were given approval--raising the capital stock from $75,000 to $100,000; increasing the surplus to $100,000 maximum, and a boost in undivided profits the $100,000 level.

The addition, which is needed to accommodate the increase in business had by the bank, it was explained, is to join the present structure on the east.

The directors were elected by the stockholders and in turn named the bank officers for the coming year. Directors who also are officers are: C. W. Batson, president succeeding John Handorf, Jr., who was elected chairman of the board; Sheldon W. Hauck, executive vice president and Archibald Corp., vice president, Frank E. Vranic is secretary. The other member of the six-man board is Ernest Oram, Jr.

Robert J. McCleary was named cashier and William E. Van Cleave, assistant cashier. FRANKFORT Business has been good at the

Lincoln-Way Matmen Win Two Matches, Tie Bremen

Lincoln-Way varsity wrestlers tied Bremen 22-22 in a South-west Suburban conference match and won two non-conference contests last week. The frosh-soph aggregation from Lincoln-Way defeated Bremen 29 to 21.

The Bremen matches were staged last Friday. Earlier the L-W varsity outfit beat Lockport, 32 to 20 and finished on top of a 40 to 15 scored in a go with Morris high school. The junior varsity defeated Morris 54 to 0.

In the varsity match with Morris Cliff Cheatwood, of Lincoln-Way had the fastest pin of the year 0:39 seconds in the 103-pound class. Cheatwood has won 10 matches this year and lost won. Ton Santarelli (L-W) who has won 12 matches, lost one and tied one, pinned his man at Morris in the 127 pound division in 0:47 seconds. Bill Delaney had revenge for an earlier defeat this year by gaining a decision over Jim Hynds, of Morris. Cheatwood got a decision at Lockport and pinned his opponent at Bremen.

Fire Station Pledge Comes 9,000 Miles

Orland Park's Fire Chief Arthur Granat does not care to say who made the largest pledge to the fund raised to build the new fire station -- for obvious reasons -- but he has no hesitancy in stating what pledge payment traveled farthest.

Chief Granat received a letter this week from Moses Hegyi, who resides on Rt. 2, Orland Park. A letter from Hegyi's home to Orland Park is no distance, either as the crow flies or the mailman travels.

But this letter did not come from Orland township. It came from Austrailia, some 9,000 miles away, a distance no crow could hope to fan and certainly not a trip for a mailman in an automobile.

Mr. Hegyi is visiting in Australia and finding his pledge for the fire station building fund was due he mailed it in -- air mail. The pledge was made in the form of a $10 check on the Orland State bank.

The village hall forms the north wing of the fire station and was completed only two weeks ago.

Trustees Brett A. Blair and Lloyd Cowan have been appointed as co-chairman to arrange details of the program. Invitations will be sent out to surrounding communities, asking the elected officials, firemen and police, to visit the new quarters. There will be refreshments.

Ten directors were elected by the stockholders and the board elected the officers of the bank. The officers also are directors.

A. H. Krusemark was re-elected president of the bank. The other officers are Alvin Bruggeman, vice-president; A. C. Bauch, secretary; Howard W. Remien, cashier and James P. Walsh, assistant cashier. The other directors; Herman Barlewort, Leroy Bettenhausen, Leroy Mager, Adam Heuser and George Tate.

A 10 percent dividend was declared.

ROY P. KROPP was named vice-president by the board of directors of the Mokena State Bank at their annual meeting held last Monday, Jan. 9. The position was formerly held by the late Edward B. Martie for 28 years. Miss Lydia Baudry, assistant cashier, was named as a director.

Other officers, who also serve as directors, include Mrs. Rose McMahon, president; Owen C. Maue, secretary; and Everett J. Cooper, cashier.

At the stockholders meeting prior to the directors meeting a 5% dividend was approved.

Bremen Bows To Driving Sandburg Quint, 53 To 49

BY DAVE GONZALEZ

The Sandburg Eagles in a surprise move overpowered the Bremen Braves on the Sandburg court last Saturday evening by a score of 53 to 49. Bremen, the higher rated of the two teams put up a valiant battle but was no match for the determined Eagles. The game was tough and go from the starting whistle until the middle of the third quarter when it became apparent that the Sandburg squad was on the road to chalking up another mark in the win column.

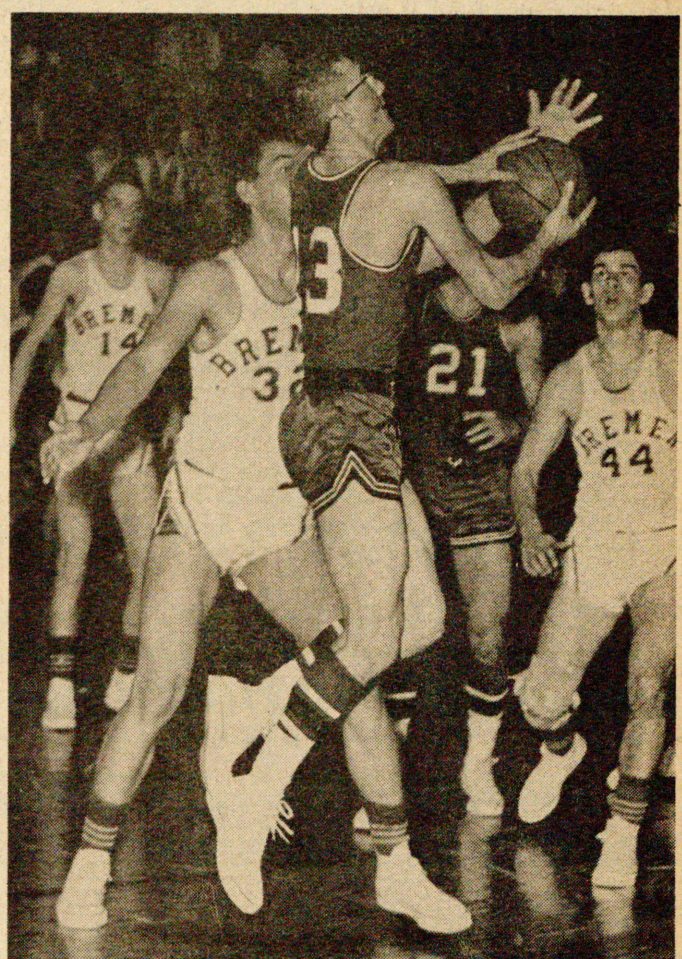

Bremen taking the tip in the 1st moment of play began their usual hard driving tactics, so effective in past games, Sandburg snagged the rebound and quickly netted the first score of the night. The remainder of the quarter progressed rapidly with both teams working well on offensive and defensive plays. So evenly matched were the two teams that the score at the end of the first quarter stood 14-14.

The Eagles took the jump again in the second quarter and began stepping up the action. Bremens defense seemed looser in this period and Sandburg lost no time in taking advantage of the situation. The Eagles drove up a 6 point lead in the quarter bringing the score to now read Sandburg 28-Bremen 22.

Coach Adams analysis of the Bremen tactics proved even more fruitful in the third period. The Eagles sensing that the Bremen team was slightly shaken by the unforeseen turn of events, now worked with a confidence that was apparent in their attack. Lance Roberts was doing a particularly fine job in getting the ball off the boards which contributed greatly to the sustained Eagle attack.

The third quarter proved to be the highest scoring period of the contest for the Sandburg team, for at its conclusion The Eagles had gained an 11 point lead over the slightly disheartened Braves. Score at the quarter Sandburg 44 - Bremen 33.

As the game entered the final

WHETHER THIS SHOT hit or was blocked in the Bremen-Lincoln-Way game was not recorded by the photographer. It looks like a Bremen man will slap the ball down but the perspective in a photograph can be tricky. Maybe the Lincoln-Way player had room to get the shot off. Anyway by the time the evening had ended Lincoln-Way had put more balls thru the webbing than Bremen was able to slap aside.

8 minutes of play Bremen in desperation put forth their maximum effort to save the situation. With but a few minutes remaining on the clock the Braves managed to bring their score up to within 4 points of tying the Sandburg cagers, but time as well as the Eagles were now against them in the race. Moments later and much to the delight of the numerous Sandburg fans present the scoreboard verified the Eagles upset of the powerful Bremen Braves by a final score of 53-to-49.

Coach Adams had no substitutions thruout the game while the Braves skipper Bill Brown elected to use four. High scores for the game honors were shared on the Eagle roster by Busch and Roberts with 14 each. John Ragsdale of the Braves was top man pointwise of both teams with a very respectable 20 to his credit.

Sandburgs next trip to the courts will be held against the top team in the conference on the night of January 20th. Their worthy opponents will be the Lincoln-Way Knights at the Knights gym in New Lenox. With respect to the Eagles win over Bremen Saturday, who knows, this just possibly might turn into the upset of the season. In any event it certainly should be an exciting contest.

Breaks Leg While On Ice Fishing Trip

Herbert Bruns, operator of a tavern bearing his name at New Lenox, set out last week end on an ice fishing expedition and wound up in a hospital. A fall on the ice at a lake near Marionette, Wis., last Saturday, Jan. 15, fractured a leg. He is now in St. Joseph's hospital, Menominee, Mich. Bruns will be there for several days, it was said, before he will be able to travel and return home. He was accompanied on the trip by Earl Schroeder and William Weems, both also of New Lenox.

The Department of Commerce estimates that there will be 114 million motor vehicles on the highways by 1976. There are some 70 million registered now.

SEEK HIT-RUN CAR

Orland Park police are looking for a hit-run driver who damaged two cars on 143rd place about 2 a.m. on Jan. 12. The car that struck the parked vehicles, police said, was a 1960 Chevrolet, blue or dark green in color. The car in question had a severely damaged front end and left front fender, the report states, and lost an inner left headlight at the scene of the crash. Police ask that anyone seeing such a car communicate with them.
